

The Power of Allianz in Moments of Truth

Allianz Insurance plc

What is it that makes Allianz a market-leading, financially sound and trustworthy insurer?

- Professional intermediaries know us to be part of Allianz SE, a global leader in insurance and financial services.
- We have been successfully transacting insurance business in the UK for more than 100 years.
- We have a AA– rating from Standard and Poor's.
- We have invested heavily in the development of our employees over a long period to ensure the highest level of professionalism in all that we do.
- We provide a highly responsive local service to our broker partners through our UK network of branches and have been recognised with numerous industry awards over the last decade.
- Our products and services have been carefully developed with brokers to ensure we provide the insurance solutions that businesses need.
- Our financial strength and experience extends to over 70 countries around the world, and we actively leverage best practice from across our group to deliver sustainable benefits to our clients everywhere.
- We are a top five commercial insurer in the UK and the market of choice for many recognised household names.

Allianz SE

Allianz is now present in more than 70 countries. At the top of the international group is the holding company, Allianz SE, whose head office is in Munich. We are a global leader in insurance and financial services.

Allianz SE carries a AA rating from Standard and Poor's and its wholly owned subsidiary Allianz Insurance plc a AA– rating. This offers the reassurance that in the event of a claim Allianz Insurance plc will meet its obligations.

Further information on the Allianz group of companies can be found at: www.allianz.com.